

Classified Sessions

Instructions for Completing Security Clearance Form — U. S. Citizen Participation Only

Penalty for Misrepresentation

Title 18, United States Code 1001, makes it a criminal offense, punishable by a maximum of 5 years imprisonment, $10,000 fine, or both, to make a false statement of representation to any Department or Agency of the United States as to any matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or Agency of the United States. This includes any statement knowingly made by an employer or employee herein that is found to be incorrect, incomplete, or misleading in any important particular.

Security Clearance Required

All persons wishing to attend the AUSA Symposium classified sessions must, at a minimum, possess a current SECRET personnel security clearance. Participation is limited to U.S. citizens.

Applicants who have been granted a SECRET clearance by the U.S. Government must submit an AUSA Symposium Security Clearance Form, not later than 7 May 2004.

Photograph Requirements

Attendees of the classified program will be issued a color photograph identification badge. Please provide a color photograph in one of the following manners:

Option 1

E-mail a JPEG digital photograph together with your name and company/organization to ausasymposium@boeing.com.

Option 2

Place a digital JPEG photograph on a 3.5 inch floppy diskette and mail it along with the completed security clearance form to the address indicated below.

The Boeing Company
AUSA Symposium
Attn: Security
3370 Miraloma Ave.
Anahiem, CA 92803

Option 3

Attach two (2) identical 1 inch wide x 1 ¼ inch high color photographs. Print attendee name on the back of the photographs and mail to address above.

Identification

All persons wishing to attend the AUSA Symposium classified sessions must present proper photo identification, such as a passport or military photo.

Classified Storage

Temporary classified storage facilities for visual aids and scripts for classified presentations will be managed by The Boeing Company during the conference. Classified material to be presented at the conference must be received prior to 24 May 2004.

